Welcome to the Institute of Continuing Education

We hope that you will have an enjoyable day and find out everything you need to know about our courses and other activities at the University of Cambridge Institute of Continuing Education (ICE).

Registration and welcome
Please register from 10am in the Dining Hall.
There will be a welcome event for all attendees at 10.30am in the Saloon. This will be lead by Dr James Gazzard, Director of Continuing Education.

Course information and information stands
Course tutors and administrators will be on hand in the information stands in the Dining Hall throughout the day to advise you on study options and help you register for courses. You can also find out about bursaries, student support and technology enhanced learning.

Lunch and refreshments
Free tea and coffee will be available throughout the day in the Terrace Bar, Stair Hall and Gallery. A free sandwich buffet lunch will also be available between 12:00 and 14:30 in the Saloon and bar.
It will be possible to take your lunch to the sessions you are booked on to during that time.

Tours of the Gardens
Tours of the Gardens will take place at 11:15 and 15:15. If you have booked a place on a tour, please assemble in the Terrace Bar at the allotted time.
Note that printed guides to the Hall and Gardens are available to purchase at reception.

Discussions and academic advice
Our lecturers will be available for academic advice in informal discussions and in the Dining Hall throughout the day to answer your academic questions.

Online study and VLE
Find out about our programme of short online courses and discover how the ICE Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) can help your studies in the Study Skills session at 12:15 with Dr Corinne Boz and Cory Saarinen.
