

UNIVERSITY OF
CAMBRIDGE

Institute of Continuing Education

Part-time University qualifications

2018 – 2019 Certificates, Diplomas, Advanced Diplomas and MSts

www.ice.cam.ac.uk

Contents

About our courses.....	2
Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences	3
Archaeology and Landscape History.....	3
Architecture and Design.....	4
Education and Teaching.....	6
History and Local History.....	6
History of Art.....	7
Law and Criminology.....	7
Literature and Film.....	8
Philosophy.....	9
Social Sciences.....	9
Business Studies, Coaching and Leadership	10
Creative Writing	12
International Studies and Politics.....	14
Research Skills	15
Science, Technology and Medicine.....	16
How to apply for a course	19
How to find us	20
Other courses at the Institute of Continuing Education.....	20

Introduction

The University of Cambridge Institute of Continuing Education's portfolio of Certificates, Diplomas, Advanced Diplomas and MSts form a core part of our scholarly agenda. They bring the educational excellence of Cambridge to bear on a wide variety of academic disciplines spanning the arts, humanities, social sciences and natural sciences.

*Dr James
Gazzard*

Whether you are taking your first steps in higher education, exploring a new field or engaging with work-relevant learning, our part-time programmes will guide you using a range of student-centred approaches. Working together with Cambridge academics and like-minded peers at ICE, you will find a welcoming, accessible and interactive learning community.

Through research-informed teaching and strong pastoral support it is our aim to provide the very highest quality part-time courses for adults; courses that respond to your need to fit learning around the other demands of life. We hope you will consider joining us and becoming part of one of the best continuing education centres in the world.

Dr James Gazzard, Director of Continuing Education

About the Institute of Continuing Education

The University of Cambridge Institute of Continuing Education (ICE) provides part-time and short courses for adults of all ages, taught by leading Cambridge experts.

Here at ICE you can develop your professional skills with Cambridge academics and industry experts, or study for personal enrichment and join our accessible and friendly communities of part-time learning. Whatever your background or experience, we can help you to realise your academic ambitions.

ICE was founded in 1873, and is based at Madingley Hall, an historic Tudor mansion on the outskirts of Cambridge with some of the finest gardens in the region.

About our courses

All the courses in this booklet lead to full University of Cambridge qualifications which are accredited under the nationally recognised Credit Accumulation and Transfer Scheme (CATS).

		Course	Credits	Qualification
UNDERGRADUATE	FHEQ 4	Undergraduate Certificate course	60 Credits	eg Undergraduate Certificate in Archaeology
		Undergraduate Certificate course I + Undergraduate Certificate course II in the same subject	120 Credits	eg Undergraduate Certificate of Higher Education in Archaeology
	FHEQ 5	Undergraduate Diploma course	60 Credits	eg Undergraduate Diploma in Archaeology
		Undergraduate Diploma course I + Undergraduate Diploma course II in the same subject	120 Credits	eg Undergraduate Diploma of Higher Education in Archaeology
	FHEQ 6	Undergraduate Advanced Diploma course	120 Credits	eg Undergraduate Advanced Diploma in Archaeology
	POSTGRADUATE	FHEQ 7	Postgraduate Certificate	60 Credits
Postgraduate Diploma			120 Credits	Postgraduate Diploma
A part-time Master's degree taken over two years				Master of Studies (MSt)

FHEQ signifies the framework for higher education qualifications in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. Undergraduate years are FHEQ Levels 4–6. Postgraduate study at Master's level is FHEQ Level 7.

Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences

Archaeology and Landscape History

Undergraduate Certificate in Archaeology of Ancient Britain

Dates:	13 October 2018 – 6 July 2019
Sessions:	12 Saturday day schools
Course Director:	Dr Gilly Carr
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819CCR103
Apply by:	10 September 2018

This course will give you a solid introduction to the practice, methods, theories and key sources used by archaeologists. It is open to everyone regardless of previous educational experience. The course will introduce you to the Neolithic, Bronze and Iron Ages and then focus on Romano-British society from the Roman Conquest to the settlement of the Saxons.

Please note that this is one of two Archaeology Certificate courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Certificate in Archaeology of the Ancient World (previously Certificate II).

Undergraduate Certificate in the Making of the English Landscape:
Landscape History and Archaeology

Dates:	19 October 2018 – 7 July 2019
Sessions:	6 weekends
Course Director:	Dr Susan Oosthuizen
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,500*
Code:	1819CCR106
Apply by:	5 October 2018

* Fee includes tuition, meals and refreshments at Madingley Hall from Friday evening to Sunday lunchtime during the six teaching weekends.

This course takes as its starting point WG Hoskins' ground-breaking Making of the English

Landscape (1955). Each unit explores how our understanding of the history of the English landscape has changed since the mid-1950s, and demonstrates how the modern landscape, together with documentary archaeological, architectural and ecological evidence, can be used to unravel long-term continuities and changes in the evolution of the rural landscape from prehistory into the 19th century. The course aims, too, to support anyone who wishes to explore their own landscapes of interest.

Please note that this is one of three English Landscape courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The other courses are the Undergraduate Certificate in the Making of the English Landscape: Garden History (previously Certificate II) and the Undergraduate Certificate in the Making of the English Landscape: Sources and Methods (previously Certificate III).

Undergraduate Certificate in the Study of Medieval England

Dates:	26 October 2018 – 7 July 2019
Sessions:	6 weekends
Course Director:	Dr Susan Oosthuizen
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,500*
Code:	1819CCR708
Apply by:	5 October 2018

* Fee includes tuition, meals and refreshments at Madingley Hall from Friday evening to Sunday lunchtime during the six teaching weekends.

Medieval documents, buildings and artefacts survive in archives, landscapes and galleries, sometimes in remarkable numbers and in a remarkable state of preservation. This course will help you to develop an interdisciplinary overview that uses this range of material to address large questions: the complexity of changing power relationships between lords, gentry and peasants; the influence of dramatic climate change and deadly epidemics on social and economic structures; agricultural conservatism and innovation in attempts to meet these challenges; and the importance of changes in ideas expressed in art and religion in cultural transformation.

Please note that this is one of two linked Certificate courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Certificate in the Study of Early Medieval England.

Undergraduate Diploma in Archaeology: Death and the Ancient World *

* Title subject to approval.

Dates:	13 October 2018 – 6 July 2019
Sessions:	12 Saturday day schools
Course Director:	Dr Gilly Carr
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819DCR601
Apply by:	10 September 2018

This course will give you an advanced and in-depth knowledge of a key prehistoric and historic period in the archaeology of the ancient world. This is coupled with an insight into the study of bones and ancient diseases, so vital in the interpretation of prehistoric and historic periods. The course is open to all regardless of previous educational experience, although prior study at Certificate level is recommended.

Please note that this is one of three Archaeology Diploma courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The other courses are Undergraduate Diploma in Archaeology: Conflict, History and Heritage (title subject to approval; previously Diploma II) and Undergraduate Diploma in Archaeology: Methods and Practice (title subject to approval; previously Diploma III).

Architecture and Design

Undergraduate Certificate of Higher Education in Historic Building Conservation

This course runs every two years, and will be offered next in 2019.

This two-year course offers an introduction to the philosophy and practice of historic building conservation, with an emphasis on developing an understanding of the traditional crafts involved. It is taught by means of lectures, visits and field trips across East Anglia to view buildings and practitioners at work. Classes take place at ICE's headquarters, Madingley Hall, a 16th-century manor house set in eight acres of landscaped gardens designed by Capability Brown.

Postgraduate Certificate in Professional Practice in Architecture

Dates:	20 September 2018 – 28 September 2019
Sessions:	2 or 3-day workshop each term + study groups + online learning
Course Director:	Miranda Terry
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee:	£3,100
Code:	1819PPRA01
Apply by:	21 May 2018

This course is for graduates who have obtained RIBA/ARB Parts 1 and 2 or have confirmation of Parts 1 and 2 equivalence from the Architects' Registration Board (ARB). Successful completion of the course qualifies you to register with the ARB and thereafter be called an architect. It also entitles you to take up corporate membership of the Royal Institute of British Architects (RIBA). Thereby, it is the formal entry into the profession. The course acts as a forum for discussion of certain major concerns of the profession as well as providing preparation for the examination.

MSt in Building History

Dates: 1 October 2018 – 31 July 2020

Fee: £7,500 per annum (Home/EU)
£10,500 per annum (Overseas)

Code: ARM12

Apply by: 30 June 2018

This academically rigorous yet practical course aims to equip you for careers in historic building investigation, research, recording, assessment, management and interpretation. The course, delivered by the Department of Architecture and devised in collaboration with English Heritage (now Historic England), is unique in combining British architectural history with practical tuition in interpreting building fabric.

MSt in Construction Engineering

Dates: 9 September 2018
– 18 September 2020

Fee: £11,427 per annum

Code: EGM13

Apply by: 30 April 2018

The aim of this course is to develop and empower emerging leaders to transform the construction industry. It is an advanced leadership programme aimed at future leaders of the industry. The course is offered by the Department of Engineering in association with the Cambridge Judge Business School at the University of Cambridge.

MSt in Interdisciplinary Design for the Built Environment

Dates: 9 September 2018
– 31 July 2020

Fee: £9,960 per annum

Code: ARM11

Apply by: 28 June 2018

This transformative course is designed for global practitioners working in the built environment. Intensive, themed residential weeks deliver a bespoke learning experience, which develops individual and professional skills in multidisciplinary teamwork, the design process and individual research. The course is delivered by the Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership in association with the Departments of Architecture and Engineering.

MSt in Real Estate

Dates: 10 September 2018
– 31 July 2020

Fee: £10,614 per annum

Code: LEM7

Apply by: 30 April 2018

This course is delivered by the Department of Land Economy and draws on the multi-disciplinary strength of the Department and the University. It is aimed at experienced professionals and those identified as future leaders in the real estate industry. The course aims to equip you with a broader knowledge of all aspects of the real estate industry, providing insight into a range of long-term themes and strategic issues in the market as well as developing a range of research and other skills.

Education and Teaching

MSt in Advanced Subject Teaching

Dates: 6 August 2018 – 31 August 2020

Course Director: Dr Nigel Kettley

Fee: £5,000 per annum (Home/EU)
£14,205 per annum (Overseas)

Code: EDM16

Apply by: 30 April 2018

This unique Master's degree has been designed to help English and History teachers develop their subject knowledge and enhance their professional and academic standing. As well as preparing you for possible future research leading to the degree of EdD or PhD, the analytical and transferable skills it provides will be valuable if you are seeking to develop your career within the field of education.

History and Local History

Undergraduate Certificate in Local History: Evaluating the Past through British Local History

Dates: 14 October 2018 – 9 June 2019

Sessions: 11 Sunday day schools
+ 2 field trips

Course Director: Dr Samantha Williams

Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4

Fee: £2,175

Code: 1819CCR111

Apply by: 3 September 2018

This course begins with an introduction to local history, in order to provide you with some of the key skills and concepts used by local historians. It continues with units on communities in early modern England and religion during the First World War.

Please note that this is one of two Local History Certificate courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Certificate in Local History: Approaches to British Local History (previously Certificate II).

MSt in History

Dates: 24 September 2018
– 30 June 2020

Course Director: Dr Samantha Williams

Fee: £5,000 per annum (Home/EU)
£10,000 per annum (Overseas)

Code: HSM14

Apply by: 28 March 2018

This two-year programme is designed for those who wish to develop high-level skills in historical research. Two thematic strands are available: British local and regional history and (for 2018–20) Global history. You will specialise in one of these two themes, studying taught modules and undertaking original research, culminating in a dissertation of 16,000 – 20,000 words.

History of Art

Undergraduate Diploma in History of Art: Changing Contexts from 17th to 19th Centuries *

Dates:	13 October 2018 – 15 June 2019
Sessions:	9 Saturday day schools + 3 gallery visits
Course Director:	Mary Conochie
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819DCR602
Apply by:	3 September 2018

* Title subject to approval.

This course gives you an opportunity to extend and develop your art historical knowledge and skills. It is designed for those who have either studied History of Art at Certificate level, or who have appropriate knowledge, experience and enthusiasm in this field.

Please note that this is one of two History of Art Diploma courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Diploma in History of Art: Breaking Boundaries in 20th-century Art Movements (title subject to approval; previously Diploma II).

Law and Criminology

MSt in Applied Criminology and Police Management

Dates:	8 April 2018 – 28 February 2020
Course Director:	Professor Lawrence Sherman
Fee:	£12,000 per annum
Code:	CRM8
Apply by:	1 March 2018

This course, delivered by the Institute of Criminology, is designed to provide training for senior police officers in the study of crime and harm-reduction issues, with a strong emphasis on evidence-based policy and practice.

MSt in Applied Criminology, Penology and Management

Dates:	3 April 2018 – 28 February 2020
Course Director:	Professor Lawrence Sherman
Fee:	£10,000 per annum
Code:	CRM7
Apply by:	1 March 2018

This course, delivered by the Institute of Criminology, is designed for members of HM Prison Service and the Probation Service, and also to other candidates working in the Criminal Justice System both in the United Kingdom and overseas.

Literature and Film

Undergraduate Certificate in English Literature: Approaches to Literary Study *

* Title subject to approval.

Dates: 13 October 2018 – 29 June 2019
Sessions: 12 Saturday day schools
Course Director: Dr Jenny Bavidge
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,175
Code: 1819CCR201
Apply by: 3 September 2018

This course will introduce you to literary studies, through lectures, seminar discussion and structured reading of literature from a range of historical periods. You will be taught how to analyse poetry, fiction and drama and will study selected authors and periods in depth. You do not have to have studied literature before to undertake this programme; you just need a love of reading and a desire to find out more!

Please note that this is one of two English Literature Certificate courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Certificate in English Literature: Texts and Contexts (title subject to approval).

Undergraduate Diploma in English Literature: Literature Past and Present *

* Title subject to approval.

Dates: 14 October 2018 – 30 June 2019
Sessions: 12 Sunday day schools
Course Director: Dr Jenny Bavidge
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee: £2,175
Code: 1819DCR704
Apply by: 3 September 2018

This course will develop your knowledge of literature from a range of historical periods. Through lectures, carefully constructed reading lists and class discussion, you will get to know authors and their works in depth, and discover ideas and debates you may not have encountered before.

Please note that this is one of two English Literature Diploma courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Diploma in English Literature: Literature and Criticism (title subject to approval).

Undergraduate Certificate in Film Studies

NEW for 2018

Dates: 14 October 2018 – 30 June 2019
Sessions: 12 Sunday day schools
Course Director: Dr Loreta Gandolfi
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,175
Code: 1819CCR801
Apply by: 3 September 2018

This new course will introduce you to the academic study of film, delving into key aspects of film history, theory, and criticism. You will be taught how to analyse the way film narrative is constructed and to examine the work of influential directors, becoming familiar with different genres and cinema from around the world. You do not have to have studied film before to undertake this programme.

Philosophy

Undergraduate Certificate in Philosophy: Metaphysics, Philosophy of Language, and Ethics

Dates:	14 October 2018 – 7 July 2019
Sessions:	12 Sunday day schools
Course Director:	Dr Alex Carter
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819CCR108
Apply by:	3 September 2018

Do you enjoy thinking about the nature of reality, how we should treat one another, what we should believe in, what it is possible for us to know, what distinguishes the meaningful from the meaningless, or what it takes to be a person? If so, then this course may well be for you. No previous experience in the subject is necessary. As a student on the course you will develop your ability to think carefully and rigorously about the questions raised, and the answers which have been proposed.

Please note that this is one of two Philosophy Certificate courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Certificate in Philosophy: History of Philosophy, Philosophy of Mind, and Political Philosophy (previously Certificate II).

Social Sciences

Undergraduate Certificate in Sociology, Politics and Psychology

Dates:	28 September 2018 – 28 July 2019
Sessions:	12 Friday day schools
Course Director:	Dr Nigel Kettley
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819CCR110
Apply by:	3 September 2018

This course encourages critical thinking related to existing social scientific research and theory in order to promote balanced judgements about the causes of behaviour in modern societies. You will also examine the similarities and differences between Sociology, Politics and Psychology to promote an appreciation of divergent schools of thought in the human, social and political sciences.

B&B at Madingley

Not only can you stay at Madingley Hall during your studies, but why not use us as your base every time you visit Cambridge? With award-winning cuisine and comfortable en-suite rooms, Madingley is your home from home.

Find out more at www.madingleyhall.co.uk or phone +44 (0)1223 746222

Business Studies, Coaching and Leadership

Undergraduate Certificate
in Coaching

Dates:	18 September 2018 – 31 July 2019 (first intake) 26 February 2019 – 15 November 2019 (second intake)
Sessions:	4-day workshop each term + online learning
Course Director:	Sally Bernham
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£3,780
Code:	1819CPBC01 (first intake) 1819CPBC11 (second intake)
Apply by:	3 September 2018

This course will provide you with the opportunity to develop skills in coaching other people within your chosen sphere of activity. It is an entry-level course and is suitable for all levels including those who have been coaching but who have no formal qualifications. It will focus on coaching processes and techniques, together with the theories that underpin them.

The course has been awarded Accredited Certificate in Coaching Training (ACCT) status by the Association for Coaching (AC).

The Institute of Continuing Education is an Organisational Member and recognised coach training provider of the AC.

Undergraduate Diploma
in Coaching

Dates:	23 October 2018 – 31 July 2019
Sessions:	4-day workshop each term + online learning
Course Director:	Dorothy Foote
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee:	£3,780
Code:	1819CPBC02
Apply by:	11 June 2018

This course allows you to further develop your skills in coaching, giving you the knowledge, skills and confidence required to provide effective coaching interventions in a range of environments. It follows on from, and builds upon, the Undergraduate Certificate in Coaching and provides a clear progression route for those wishing to develop their coaching practice.

The course has been awarded Accredited Diploma in Coaching Training (ADCT) status by the Association for Coaching (AC). The Institute of Continuing Education is an Organisational Member and recognised coach training provider of the AC.

Coming soon...

Look out for our new Undergraduate Certificate in Strategic Business Management. This part-time course, which is currently under development, will offer an introduction to the fundamental understanding of organisations, their strategy and management, the economy and the business environment. Combined with the proposed Undergraduate Certificate in Operational Business Management, the programme will provide a solid foundation in the disciplines which form the basis of management practice.

MSt in Entrepreneurship

Dates: 2 September 2018
– 31 August 2020

Fee: £15,501 per annum

Apply by: 30 June 2018

This course provides an overview and understanding of entrepreneurship and the critical skills and perspectives required for doing it. It is highly interactive, with workshops, case studies, subject experts, and practitioners engaging in the discussion of key concepts, theories, frameworks, and emerging ideas for creating, developing, and enabling entrepreneurship in the private, public and social sectors in the UK and internationally. It is delivered by the Cambridge Judge Business School.

MSt in Social Innovation

Dates: 1 October 2018 – 31 July 2020

Fee: £15,501 per annum

Code: MGM21

Apply by: 29 March 2018

This course is designed for practitioners in the business, public and social sectors who wish to design and lead innovative solutions to pressing social issues. It is aimed at middle- and senior-level leaders operating in all sectors of the economy – including firms, public bodies, NGOs and social – who wish to build on their experience and expertise to collaborate with others to create social change. The programme is delivered by the Cambridge Judge Business School through online delivery and residential weeks in Cambridge.

MSt in Sustainability Leadership

Dates: 23 September 2018
– 31 July 2020

Fee: £12,102 per annum

Code: MGM20

Apply by: 29 March 2018

This course aims to develop the leadership capacity to drive the business response to critical sustainability challenges and opportunities. Applicants may wish to formalise their credentials as sustainability professionals, or gain a better understanding of how sustainability risks and opportunities apply to mainstream business functions. The programme, now in its eighth year, typically attracts an exceptional calibre of senior and mid-career leaders from all across the world, and a range of business sectors. It is delivered by the University of Cambridge Institute for Sustainability Leadership (CISL).

Creative Writing

Undergraduate Certificate in Creative Writing: Fiction and Writing for Performance *

* Title subject to approval.

Dates:	9 October 2018 – 15 June 2019
Sessions:	Tuesdays 7.15pm – 9.15pm + 6 Saturday day schools
Course Director:	Midge Gillies
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819CCR107
Apply by:	3 September 2018

This course gives you the chance to explore a range of genres and literary styles as a way of stimulating your own writing voice. It is designed for anyone who wants to pursue a creative writing project, and provides students with the chance to experiment in a friendly and supportive atmosphere. The course offers an introduction to creative writing, followed by units on approaches to long fiction, and writing for performance.

Please note that this is one of two Creative Writing Certificate courses, which run concurrently and can be studied independently of each other, and in any order.

Undergraduate Certificate in Creative Writing: Creative Non-Fiction *

Dates:	9 October 2018 – 15 June 2019
Sessions:	Tuesdays 7.15pm – 9.15pm + 6 Saturday day schools
Course Director:	Midge Gillies
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819CCR207
Apply by:	3 September 2018

* Title subject to approval.

This course gives you the chance to explore a range of genres and literary styles as a way of stimulating your own writing voice. It is designed for anyone who wants to pursue a creative writing project, and provides students with the chance to experiment in a friendly and supportive atmosphere. The course offers an introduction to creative non-fiction, followed by units on writing about place, and life writing.

Please note that this is one of two Creative Writing Certificate courses, which run concurrently and can be studied independently of each other, and in any order.

Undergraduate Diploma in Creative Writing: Advanced Fiction and Non-Fiction *

Dates:	13 October 2018 – 29 June 2019
Sessions:	12 Saturday day schools
Course Director:	Midge Gillies
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee:	£2,175
Code:	1819DCR501
Apply by:	3 September 2018

* Title subject to approval.

This course is designed for those who have completed a Certificate in Creative Writing or who have appropriate knowledge, experience and enthusiasm in this field. It will enable you to advance your own creative practice and knowledge of literary form, style and genre, whether you are writing for pleasure, for professional development or aiming for publication. The course offers units on advanced fiction, advanced non-fiction, and the relationship between writing and art.

Please note that this is one of two Creative Writing Diploma courses, which run concurrently and can be studied independently of each other, and in any order.

Undergraduate Diploma in Creative Writing: Historical Fiction, Crime Writing and Writing for Performance *

Dates: 14 October 2018 – 30 June 2019
Sessions: 12 Sunday day schools
Course Director: Midge Gillies
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee: £2,175
Code: 1819DCR401
Apply by: 3 September 2018

* Title subject to approval.

This course is designed for those who have completed a Certificate in Creative Writing or who have appropriate knowledge, experience and enthusiasm in this field. It will enable you to advance your own creative practice and knowledge of literary form, style and genre, whether you are writing for pleasure, for professional development or aiming for publication. The course offers units on advanced historical fiction, advanced crime writing, and advanced writing for performance.

Please note that this is one of two Creative Writing Diploma courses, which run concurrently and can be studied independently of each other, and in any order.

MSt in Creative Writing

Dates: 9 October 2018 – 1 July 2020
Fee: £7,248 per annum (Home / EU) £10,379 per annum (Overseas)
Code: ELM7
Apply by: 31 January 2018

This programme is designed for those who wish to develop high-level skills in creative writing both in fiction and non-fiction literatures. You will be guided in the production of creative work in a range of genres and styles and also in critical reflection on your own work and that of other writers. The course tutors and guest speakers are all established literary professionals.

Coming soon...

Look out for our new Postgraduate Certificate in Teaching Creative Writing.

This exciting new programme, which is currently under development, is aimed at published writers, teachers, creative writing graduates, healthcare professionals and other public sector workers who want to improve their ability to teach creative writing.

Did you know...

... Madingley Hall is also available for hire?

If you're looking for an atmospheric and inspiring venue with first-rate facilities, phone our Events team on +44 (0)1223 746222.

We cater for all occasions, from business conferences to weddings.

International Studies and Politics

Undergraduate Certificate in International Development

Dates: 5 October 2018 – 28 June 2019
Sessions: 10 Friday day schools
Course Director: Dr Alexandra Winkels
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,700
Code: 1819CCR010
Apply by: 3 September 2018

International development is multi-disciplinary by nature and as part of this course you will learn about the basic differences in how economic, political and social dimensions underpin persistent poverty and inequality both between and inside countries. Teaching draws from both academic research and practical applications. The course is open to everyone regardless of previous educational experience, but may be of particular interest to NGO volunteers or professionals operating overseas; and to university students or staff considering placements, careers or further study in this important area.

Undergraduate Diploma in International Development: Environment, Sustainability and Globalisation

Dates: 5 October 2018 – 28 June 2019
Sessions: 10 Friday day schools
Course Director: Dr Alexandra Winkels
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 5
Fee: £2,700
Code: 1819DCR001
Apply by: 3 September 2018

This course will give you an enhanced understanding of the roles of globalisation and sustainable development, and how these processes relate to both inequality and poverty.

It is designed for those who have completed a Certificate in International Development or who have appropriate knowledge and/or experience in this field. It includes units on sustainability and development; globalisation, integration and exclusion; and environmental resources and poverty.

Please note that this is one of two International Development Diploma courses, which typically run in alternate years. They can be studied independently of each other, and in any order. The second course is the Undergraduate Diploma in International Development: Economy, Society and Welfare.

Undergraduate Certificate in International Relations

Dates: 26 October 2018 – 7 July 2019
Sessions: 6 weekends
Course Director: Ian Shields
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,700
Code: 1819CCR050
Apply by: 5 October 2018

* Fee includes tuition, meals and refreshments at Madingley Hall from Friday evening to Sunday lunchtime during the four teaching weekends.

This course provides a broad overview of what international relations is, how the international order has come about and how it is changing. It is designed for members of the public who wish to gain a better understanding of global issues affecting society today. It will also be of particular interest to those considering ICE's MSt degree in International Relations, or those who have a professional interest in the field.

Postgraduate Certificate in Public Policy

NEW
for 2018

Dates:	26 October 2018 – 30 August 2019
Sessions:	4 weekends
Course Director:	Professor Mike Kenny
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee:	£6,000*
Code:	1819PCB801
Apply by:	3 September 2018

* Fee includes tuition, meals, refreshments and accommodation at Madingley Hall from Friday evening to Sunday lunchtime during the four teaching weekends.

This new course will help you to develop your understanding of public policy through modules that combine extensive independent study with intensive study-visits, seminars and lectures in Cambridge, as well as the completion of an independent research project based upon a work placement. The programme will accelerate and deepen your grasp of the processes and dynamics affecting policy-making, the challenges of implementation facing all policy-makers, and the questions of evidence and expertise that have become increasingly salient in politics and policy discourse – helping you to make a greater impact in your professional role.

MSt in International Relations

This course runs every two years, and will be offered next in 2019.

Covering contemporary and historical perspectives on international relations, the course is designed for mature students from (for example) industry, teaching, the civil service, NGOs or the armed forces, and it is also suitable for students who have just completed their first degree. A background in international relations, law, economics, history or politics is a definite asset, but we welcome applications from all disciplines.

Research Skills

Undergraduate Advanced Diploma in Research Theory and Practice

NEW
for 2018

Dates:	30 September 2018 – 28 May 2019
Sessions:	3-day workshop each term + online learning
Course Director:	Dr Alex Carter
Credits:	60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 6
Fee:	£3,750
Code:	1819GCR001
Apply by:	3 July 2018

This new part-time research-based course gives you the opportunity to work closely and collaboratively with qualified researchers in your field. You will be introduced to a research community and will begin to forge an identity as a researcher in your own right. The course is aimed at anyone with existing Undergraduate experience (a degree or FHEQ level 5 qualification) who wishes to take their studies further.

The Undergraduate Advanced Diploma in Research Theory and Practice is the first part of a two-year Advanced Diploma programme. You can study it as a standalone course, or apply to progress to the second part of the programme: the Undergraduate Advanced Diploma in the Arts/Sciences.

The course supports the following subject specialisms in 2018/19: Archaeology; Education Studies; English Literature; Film; International Development; History, Landscape History/ Archaeology; Natural Sciences; Philosophy, Religion and Ethics; Social Sciences.

Science, Technology and Medicine

Undergraduate Certificate in Cognitive Psychology

Dates: 8 October 2018 – 31 July 2019
Sessions: 12 Monday day schools
Course Director: Dr Fiona Essig
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,700
Code: 1819CCB401
Apply by: 3 September 2018

This course will provide you with an introduction to the most active area of modern psychology: Cognitive Psychology. You will explore how the ‘science of the mind’ developed, and learn about the modern tools that it employs, from well controlled behavioural experiments, to the neuropsychological study of patients.

Undergraduate Certificate in Evolutionary Biology

Dates: 6 October 2018 – 22 June 2019
Sessions: 13 Saturday day schools
Course Director: Dr Tom Monie
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,175
Code: 1819CCR205
Apply by: 3 September 2018

Darwin’s theory of evolution by natural selection changed the way that we view the world and our own position in it. Over 150 years later it is still the very foundation of modern biology; a Rosetta Stone by which the morphological and behavioural characteristics of organisms can be interpreted. In this course, you will discover how Darwin’s work has shaped our evolutionary understanding, how plants, people and other species have evolved, and the importance of biodiversity.

Undergraduate Certificate in Genetics

Dates: 13 October 2018 – 8 June 2019
Sessions: 14 Saturday day schools
Course Director: Dr Tom Monie
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 4
Fee: £2,175
Code: 1819CCR105
Apply by: 3 September 2018

Discover how DNA works and how it informs the structures and functions of living things. This course will introduce you to key scientific advances in genetics, the impact of genomics, and the connection between genetics and disease. Using both classroom and laboratory teaching, the course also gives you the opportunity for hands-on practical experimentation of classic molecular biology techniques.

Postgraduate Certificate in Advanced Clinical Practice (Pre-Hospital Emergency Medicine)

Dates: January 2019 – December 2019
Course Director: Daniel Cody
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: TBC
Code: 1819CPBM02
Apply by: TBC

This new course is aimed at clinicians currently employed in areas of practice across the UK including paramedics, specialist paramedics, nurses and other emergency services professionals as the key providers of pre-hospital emergency medicine (PHEM). It includes units on advanced clinical assessment, clinical leadership and decision making, and pharmacology and therapeutics.

Postgraduate Certificate in Biocuration

NEW
for 2018

Dates: 17 October 2018 – 30 June 2019
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £3,750
Code: 1819PPBM03
Apply by: 30 April 2018

This new course has been designed to educate new biocurators with the requisite skills to work in this field and to provide established biocurators with a recognised qualification that reflects their diverse life-science and computational skills. We expect most applicants will be postdoctoral researchers from a life sciences background; however, we also welcome applications from graduates and postgraduates fresh from higher education.

Postgraduate Certificate in Clinical Research, Education and Leadership

Dates: 3 September 2018 – 31 July 2019
Course Director: Dr Ronan O'Leary
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £4,600
Code: 1819PPBM04
Apply by: 30 April 2018

This course is designed for Specialty Registrars or equivalent, GPs, dentists and newly appointed consultants. It includes modules on clinical research, clinical education and clinical leadership. The course is designed to be flexible and accessible to working healthcare professionals contributing towards research and professional development.

Postgraduate Certificate in Genomic Medicine

Dates: 9 October 2018 – 31 July 2019
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £4,000 (Home/EU) £9,000 (Overseas)
Code: GMPGC601
Apply by: 30 June 2018

Postgraduate Diploma in Genomic Medicine

Dates: 1 October 2018 – 31 July 2020
Credits: 120 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £4,000 per annum (Home/EU) £9,000 per annum (Overseas)
Code: GMPGD602
Apply by: 30 June 2018

MSt in Genomic Medicine

Dates: 1 October 2018 – 31 July 2020
Fee: £6,000 per annum (Home/EU) £16,000 per annum (Overseas)
Code: CSCMM1
Apply by: 30 June 2018

These postgraduate courses are designed to educate suitably qualified NHS healthcare professionals from across the multi-professional team to prepare for the future adoption of genomic technologies, and the increasing use of genomic information as part of the diagnostic and treatment pathway.

Postgraduate Certificate in Medical Education

Dates: 5 October 2018 – 31 July 2019
Course Director: Dr Jeremy Webb
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £3,950
Code: 1819CPBM01
Apply by: 30 April 2018

Postgraduate Diploma in Medical Education

NEW
for 2018

Dates: 5 October 2018 – 31 July 2020
Course Director: Dr Clare Morris
Credits: 120 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £7,950
Code: 1819PPBM05
Apply by: 30 April 2018

These courses are aimed at doctors and other professionals allied to medicine who have a teaching role and/or a role in training and appraising healthcare professionals. You will look at the theory behind teaching in medical settings and how this applies in real-life situations. You will also develop skills in giving feedback, appraisal and assessment.

Postgraduate Certificate in Practical Science Communication

NEW
for 2018

Dates: 8 October 2018 – 1 July 2019
Sessions: 13 study days + online learning
Course Director: Dr Jane Gregory
Credits: 60 CATS points at FHEQ Level 7
Fee: £4,000
Code: 1819PPBS01
Apply by: TBC

Science and its related disciplines have a wide-ranging and profound impact upon the lives of individuals, and scientists are increasingly expected to communicate their work with the wider community in a responsible, effective and engaging manner. This new Postgraduate Certificate has been designed to meet the needs of scientists and communicators who wish to engage effectively with the wider public, major funding bodies and societies.

How to apply for a course

You can apply for courses on our website, at www.ice.cam.ac.uk/awards

You can also apply on paper or by phone. To discuss alternative ways of applying, please call our Admissions team on +44 (0)1223 746262 or email ice.admissions@ice.cam.ac.uk

Fees and funding

You may be able to apply for a Student Loan from the government. Please note that you will only be eligible for a loan if you are studying for a qualification which is higher than any you already have.

As loans can take some time to process, please apply as soon as you can, and note that you will need to provide us with evidence of your award.

A small number of bursaries are available for selected courses to applicants who meet the eligibility criteria.

Please see www.ice.cam.ac.uk/funding for more information about loans and bursaries.

Note that many courses offer you the option of paying your fee in several interest-free instalments, as an alternative to paying in full when you enrol.

Entry requirements

Most Undergraduate Certificate courses have no formal entry requirements, whilst higher-level courses (Undergraduate Diplomas and upwards) typically require some relevant knowledge and experience. Please be aware that all ICE courses are taught at university level. Students from outside of the European Economic Area (EEA) and Switzerland will require an appropriate visa to attend a course at ICE.

English language requirements

All teaching is in English and you should be able to read, write and speak the language fluently. If English is not your first language, we will need evidence of your competence before we can confirm that you have a place. For details, see www.ice.cam.ac.uk/language-requirements.

Students with special needs

We welcome applications from disabled students, and make every effort to make reasonable adjustments to meet their needs. Please contact us in advance at da@ice.cam.ac.uk to discuss arrangements.

Student participation and assessment

All students are expected to take an active part in their course and submit work showing evidence of learning. You will be expected to:

1. participate actively in class work and/or in the virtual learning environment (VLE)
2. submit all of the assessed assignments for your course
3. achieve a pass mark for each termly unit
4. attend the face-to-face teaching sessions; full attendance is expected.

It is essential that you have regular access to an internet-connected computer and have an email account. Course communications will be sent via email and courses are supported by a web-based virtual learning environment. The computing facilities available at a public library or internet café may be sufficient, and unlimited free computing and internet access will be available to you within the Cambridge University Library throughout your course.

Refund and cancellation policy

The University of Cambridge reserves the right to amend, postpone or withdraw courses or sessions should circumstances demand. For up-to-date course information, please go to www.ice.cam.ac.uk/awards. Information in this brochure was correct at 8 March 2018.

In the event of insufficient enrolments, we will normally give notice of withdrawal of a course at least a week before the scheduled start of teaching. Please visit www.ice.cam.ac.uk/fees for more information on our refund policy.

How to find us

The Institute of Continuing Education is based at Madingley Hall (CB23 8AQ) in the village of Madingley, four miles west of Cambridge. It is easily accessible from the M11, A14 and A428, and London airports, with ample free parking.

For directions and maps see www.ice.cam.ac.uk/directions

Other courses at the Institute of Continuing Education

Short courses at Madingley Hall

Enjoy a stimulating study day or weekend at Madingley Hall. If you're thinking of embarking on further study, or are simply interested in exploring a new subject area, our short courses provide the perfect opportunity to dip your toe in the water. Courses are open to everyone, with no previous knowledge or experience required.

International Summer Programmes

Our International Summer Programmes have been welcoming participants from all over the world since 1923 and attract around 1,000 applicants each year. Stay in one of Cambridge's historic colleges and choose from a variety of interdisciplinary and specialist programmes in Ancient and Classical Worlds, Art and Visual Culture, Business and Entrepreneurship, Creative Writing, English Law, History, Literature, Medieval Studies, Science and Shakespeare.

Online courses

Study at Cambridge wherever you are in the world, and join our international community of learners. Our online courses are taught in small groups over seven weeks, and you will receive personal feedback on your work from an expert tutor.

Find out more about all our courses, at www.ice.cam.ac.uk/courses

Find out more about all our courses, at www.ice.cam.ac.uk/courses

UNIVERSITY OF
CAMBRIDGE

Institute of Continuing Education

Madingley Hall

Madingley

Cambridge

CB23 8AQ

Tel: 01223 746262

0044 1223 746262 (for calls from outside the UK)

Email: enquiries@ice.cam.ac.uk